Together we can do our best!

Be Ready

Be Respectful

Be Reliable

Be Responsible/Safe

Radnor has a Super Hero!

This week, I would like to celebrate Theo in Dosbarth 1 for being brave and grown up. Theo found himself in a situation where he needed to help his mum and baby sister. He was able to use the phone and call 999 to ask for help. Theo was able to tell the emergency services where he lived, which allowed them to send assistance to his address. We are so proud of him and want to recognise him as the hero he is. You are truly amazing Theo!

May we share a blessed Lent and Ramadan together as a school community.

For Week 2 our joint Lent and Ramadan Deeds of the Day were:

Kindness: Be kind to someone who looks lonely

Respect: Participate in collective worship, respectfully

Good Manners: Let adults through the door first

Justice and Rights: Article 24: Your right to good food and water.

Be grateful for good food and water

Generosity: Forgive someone if they have upset you

The children have been amazing!

Arddangosfa'r Wythnos – Dosbarth 1

Dosbarth 1 is having a fabulous Spring Term!

In the first half term, we were busy learning about 'What Makes Wales Special' and we had the opportunity to show off our many talents! We had lots of amazing experiences finding out more about our Welsh culture.

We enjoyed making traditional Welsh foods. We prepared vegetables and made leek soup, and we loved tasting the Welsh cakes that we made.

We are talented artists!
We drew and painted daffodils and we loved sponge printing and painting daffodils with local Welsh artist Rachel Trott.

We enjoyed producing artwork with natural materials inspired by the artist Andy Goldsworthy both in school and on our visit to Thompson's Park.

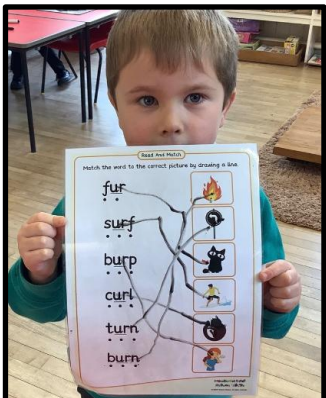

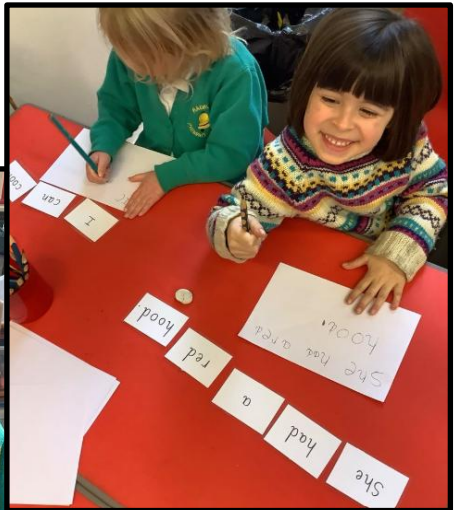

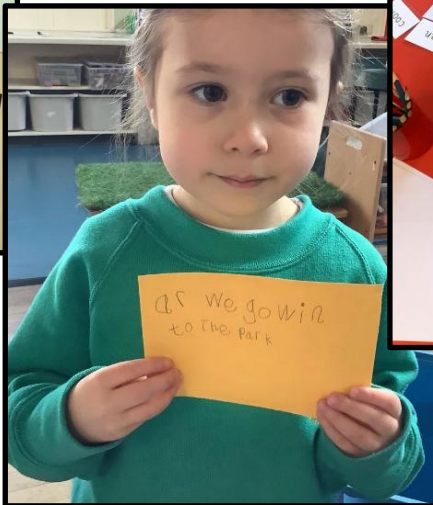

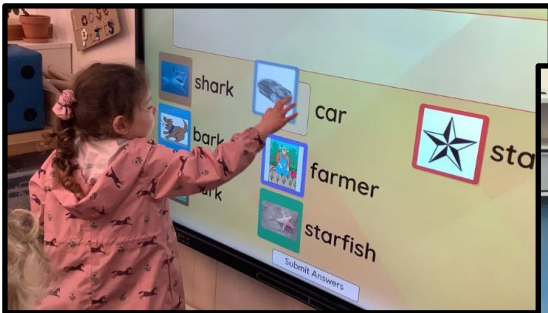

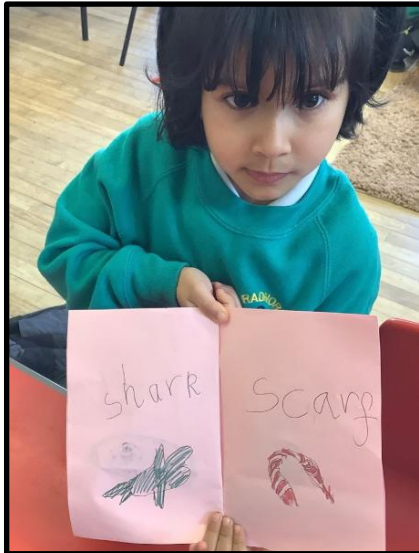

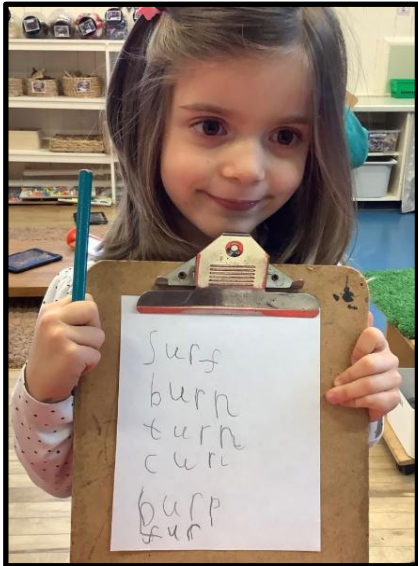

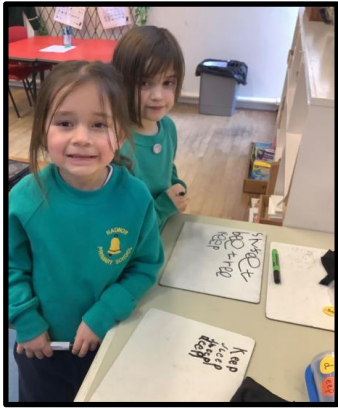

We love developing our gross motor skills outside.

Cosmic Yoga is lots of fun!

We have been learning lots of new digraphs this term!

We have explored capacity, weight, doubles along with lots of work with numbers to 8 this term!
